The Committee appoints Prof. Fulvio Ortu as President and Prof. Anna Battauz as Secretary.

The candidates submitting demand for the selection procedure are:

- Bonini Stefano
- Rotondi Francesco
- Strati Francesco
- Ugolini Simone

The Committee examines all the documents sent by the candidates. In coherence with the Call for Application, specific care is given to documentation concerning teaching activities.

The Committee jointly submits the following evaluations.

Bonini Stefano

The candidate holds a PhD in Banking and Finance from "Tor Vergata" University in Rome. His current position is Executive Director /Head of Risk Advisory /Financial Institutions at the Cerved Group.

The candidate presents titles and publications in the Banking e Risk Management field. The candidate has teaching experience in several Italian Universities, mostly in the SECS-P/11 sector.

In consideration of this, while the general profile of the candidate is good, the candidate does not seem to show a good fit for the position described in the call for the selection procedure. The Committee, unanimously, does not admit the candidate to the teaching examination.

Rotondi Francesco

The candidate has a PhD in Economics and Finance from Bocconi University of Milan. His current position is a postdoc (assegnista di ricerca) at the University of Padua, sector SECS-S/06.

The candidate presents titles and publications in the Mathematical Finance field.

He is contract professor at Bocconi University teaching several courses on topics consistent with the call for the selection procedure. In these courses, he has achieved very positive student evaluations. He authored innovative digital teaching materials for sector SECS-S/06.

The Committee formulates a very positive evaluation of the candidate and considers the candidate of extreme interest for the position in the call. The Committee, unanimously, admits the candidate to the teaching examination.

Strati Francesco

The candidate has a PhD in Economics from University of Siena.

The candidate presents titles and publications mostly on topics of mathematical economics.

He is Assistant Manager, Financial and Life Insurance Engineering in KPMG.

The teaching experience, as contract professor, is very limited, both in the amount of hours taught and time span. The most relevant part of the teaching experience dates back to 4 years ago.

Based on this, while the general profile of the candidate is good, the candidate does not seem to show a good fit for the position described in the call for the selection procedure. The Committee, unanimously, does not admit the candidate to the teaching examination.

Ugolini Simone

The candidate has a PhD in Mathematics from Trento University.

The candidate presents titles and publications mostly on Algebra topics.

The candidate has a relevant teaching experience, mostly in Mathematics (sectors Mat/03, Mat/05, Mat/06, Mat/08) and mostly in science fields degree courses. The experience in the specific teaching fields of interest for the selection procedure call is scarce.

Based on this, while the general profile of the candidate is quite good, the candidate does not seem to show a good fit for the position described in the call for the selection procedure. The Committee, unanimously, does not admit the candidate to the teaching examination.

On the basis of these evaluations, the Committee admits to the teaching examination, to be held online, the candidate Francesco Rotondi.

The Committee closes its procedures at 12 noon.
