

Curriculum Vitae – Fall 2021

Family name: Repele
 Given name: Amalia
 Gender: F
 Date of birth: 15/07/1994
 Citizenship: Swiss, Italian
 email address: amalia.repele@phd.unibocconi.it

Qualifications

Master of Science in Economics (2 years), University of Lausanne (Switzerland), 2016-2018
 Bachelor of Science in Economics (3 years), University of Lausanne (Switzerland), 2013-2016

Research Interests

Macro labor, heterogeneous agents, business cycles and non-rational expectations in macroeconomics.

Work in Progress

Social insurance and the amplification of business cycles, with Confalonieri, G.

Publications

Deviations from covered interest rate parity and capital outflows: The case of Switzerland (2020), with Tola, A., and Koomen, M. Swiss National Bank, No. 2020-08.

Mapping the Global Business Cycle Network (2021), with Waelti, S. Open Economies Review, 1-22.

Studies abroad

Exchange semester in Luiss Guido Carli (Italy), Spring 2016

Work Experience

- Research assistant at the Swiss National Bank (International Policy Analysis unit), 07.2018-07.2019
- Research assistant (Prof. P. Bacchetta), University of Lausanne, 06.2016-06.2018
- Teaching assistant (Statistics and Econometrics, 2nd year Bachelor), University of Lausanne, Fall 2017

Teaching assistance at Bocconi University:

- Economics Module 2, Macroeconomics (Bachelor), Prof. De Micco, from Spring 2021
- Empirical methods for finance (Bachelor), Prof. Croce, Fall 2020
- Foundations of economic sciences (Bachelor), Prof. Maffezzoli, from Fall 2020
- Macroeconomics and economic policy (Bachelor), Prof. Monacelli, from Fall 2021
- Advanced macroeconomics 2 (PhD), Prof. Trigari, from Fall 2021

Language Skills

French (native), English (C1), German (B2), Italian (B2).

IT Skills

Stata (good), Matlab (fairly good), Python (fairly good), Latex

Other Activities

Responsible of a department in the student think-tank Uthink, 09.2017-06.2018

